

SAMPLE METADATA: ORAL HISTORY

Field	Obligation	Sample Metadata
Title	Required	Oral history interview with Gabriel J. Savaglio, March 31, 1994
Type	Required	Sound
Rights	Required	Copyright 1994, Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System. For more information, contact University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Libraries.
Subject	Required	Barbers; Labor unions
Creator	Recommended	Savaglio, Gabriel J. [note – name of interviewee]
Contributor	Optional	Klemm, Randy M. [note – name of interviewer]
Date	Recommended	1994-03-31
Description	Recommended	Oral history interview with Gabriel J. Savaglio by Randy M. Kemm for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee's "The Vanishing Art of Barbering Oral History Project." Mr. Savaglio studied the barbering trade in 1947, then began a three-year apprenticeship under his father in Kenosha, Wisconsin in 1948. He worked as a barber in his father's shop until his retirement in 1969.
Place	Recommended	Kenosha, Wisconsin
Language	Optional	en